UNHCR The UN Refugee Agency | CORE

MIDDLE EAST SITUATION

Regional Overview of Displacement

As of 12 November 2024

Overview

Out of 1.2 million people* who have fled their homes in Lebanon, many thousands have crossed the border from Lebanon into Syria to escape the airstrikes, including Syrians, Lebanese and others.

Jdaidet Yabous remains the primary entry point for most of the individuals crossing into Syria.

Key figures

528,000
estimated individuals arrived in Syria (between 23 Sep and 09 Nov 2024)

7,800
estimated individuals arrived in north-west Syria (between 23 Sep and 06 Nov 2024)

30,980
estimated Lebanese arrived in Iraq (between 23 Sep and 05 Nov 2024)

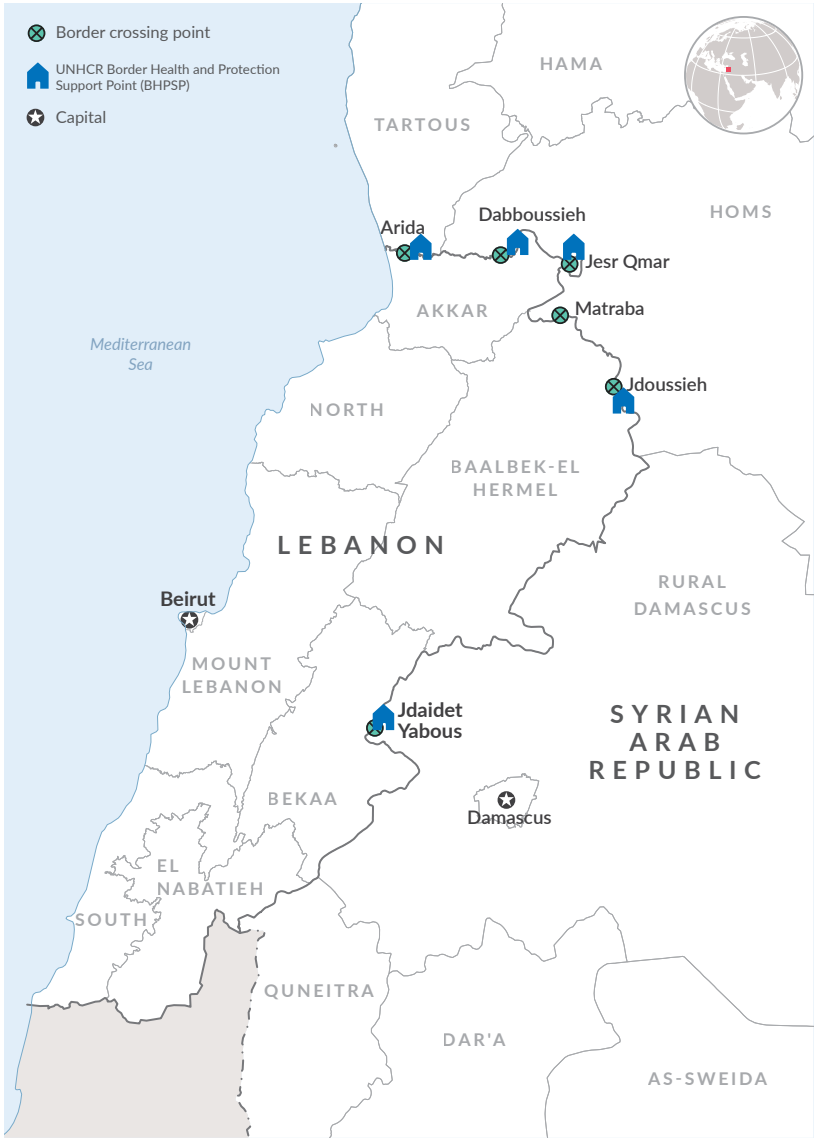
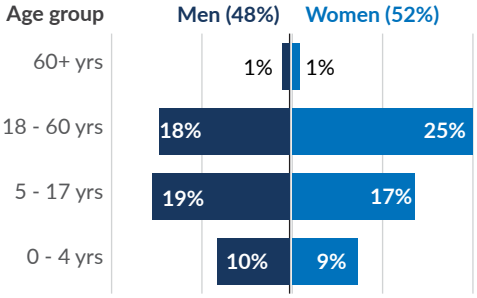
878,500
estimated individuals displaced within Lebanon (as of 11 Nov 2024)

6
border crossing points used by individuals to enter Syria

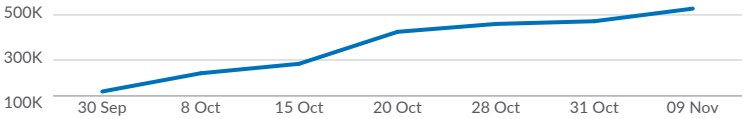


Age and gender breakdown
(Individuals newly arrived in Syria)

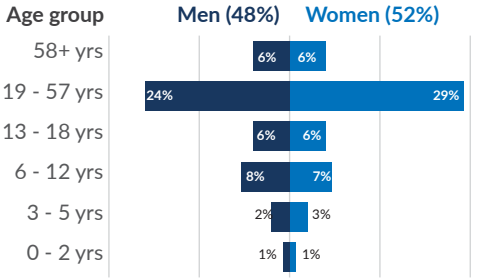


Arrivals in Syria

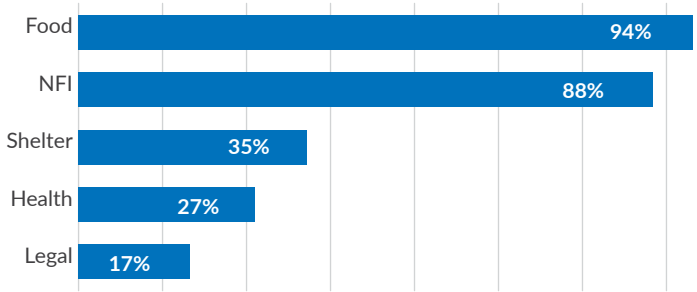
Cumulative arrivals trend in Syria



Age and gender breakdown
(Individuals displaced within Lebanon)



Top 5 needs of individuals - newly arrived in Syria



*According to Lebanon Government authorities
Figures for north-west and Iraq may include individuals already counted in the overall total number of people entering Syria, as some continued their journey to other locations after crossing the border
Note: The numbers of arrivals are from "SARC Emergency Response For Lebanese Refugees and Syrian Returnees". The numbers also include individuals entering through Matraba. Figures are undergoing verification and are subject to change.

The boundaries and names shown and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.